

THE TRUE CONFESSIONS OF CHARLOTTE DOYLE

Avi

I. TRUE-FALSE

If the statement is true, mark it T; if false, mark it F.

- | | |
|--|--|
| _____ 1. Charlotte expects the voyage across the Atlantic to be pleasant. | _____ 9. Eventually Charlotte concludes that the captain is mad. |
| _____ 2. Charlotte remembers details of the voyage because she kept a journal. | _____ 10. Captain Jaggery never confesses that he killed Mr. Hollybrass. |
| _____ 3. The porters tell Charlotte that Captain Jaggery will take good care of her. | _____ 11. Charlotte pushes the captain overboard. |
| _____ 4. At first Captain Jaggery reminds Charlotte of her father. | _____ 12. Before being reunited with her family, Charlotte expects them to be proud of her adventures. |
| _____ 5. Charlotte has no suspicion that the captain is working the crew too hard. | _____ 13. Charlotte believes throughout the book that wealth determines a person's character. |
| _____ 6. Charlotte proves her fitness to join the crew by climbing the mast. | _____ 14. Charlotte is overjoyed when the voyage is safely over. |
| _____ 7. After being accused of murder, Charlotte agrees to be judged by the crew. | _____ 15. Charlotte finds it easy to return to being a proper young lady. |
| _____ 8. At her trial, Charlotte admits that her working with the crew is unnatural. | |

continued